DON'T MISS THE 2012 NEW YORK

NORTH AFG SPRING ASSEMBLY AND CONVENTION located in Western New York, at world renowned Chautauqua Institution. Historic Chautauqua is the perfect place for meditation, renewal and recreation off season. The AFG 2012 Spring Assembly at Bellinger Hall is nestled within the quiet setting of Chautauqua. Bellinger Hall conference and retreat center offers a relaxed and modest residence hall atmosphere. Comfortable accommodations are complimented by adaptable meeting rooms, a spacious dining hall, pleasant common areas and a garden courtyard. We will have exclusive use of Bellinger Hall giving us the extraordinary opportunity to easily meet new friends and feel happy, joyous and free. Plans are underway for enjoyment and leisure activities. Participants and other guests will have opportunities such as a fitness center, pool, spa, golf, walking, library, guided tours, shopping, dining, kayaking, biking and more.

Our coordinator at Bellinger Hall has graciously offered an extra day of serenity (see pricing on registration form) to those interested in coming on Thursday, May 17, 2012. The grounds of the Institution will surely draw you in with a feel of small town America 100 years ago, a quiet, quaint Victorian setting, along the shores of beautiful Chautauqua Lake. Join us for "PJ and movie night" on Thursday, May 17th!!! We are also planning an Amish dinner, for those that may be interested. Meals are not part of the package on Thursday.

The NYN 2012 AFG Spring Assembly/Convention at Chautauqua is a wonderful opportunity to experience the uniqueness and serenity the Institution offers before the official season opens, which brings a hub of activity and expenses such as gate fees, parking fees, event fees, etc. There are none of those fees for our event. Mark your calendars and register today for this unique opportunity. We anticipate this event to be extremely popular, and space is limited, so don't miss out!!!
