Report:

Moving our website over to WordPress is still in the Development stage. Kathi D is temporarily doing all the postings and revisions to our website. Leah, our website developer, has moved the content over so far. She will be making suggestions as to what menu items could be at the main level and what menu items could be dropdowns, similar to the Rochester AIS website which she also designed. Things are progressing quickly—many thanks to Kathi D and Leah for their efforts and expertise.
