ALATEEN TRAINING MODULE II

Alateen Group Sponsorship: The Alateen Meeting

*New York North Area 39
2023-2025*

The Alateen Group

Every Alateen group has Alateen Group Sponsor(s) who have been certified in their Area as Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS).

Alateen Members

- Are members of Al-Anon who are usually 18 years old or younger
- Share their experience, strength, and hope with each other
- Learn about and practice Al-Anon recovery
- Take responsibility for the group, the meeting, and their own behavior
- Support the actions of their Alateen Group Sponsor(s) to help keep their meeting safe
- Serve as personal Sponsors to each other

Younger Children and Alateen

- Alateen requires the ability to participate in a shared learning experience.
- Teaching is not compatible with the Al-Anon principle of sharing.
- Parents can help their children by attending Al-Anon themselves.
- Lowering the age range is up to the discretion of the group.

Younger Children and Alateen

Things to Consider

- Setting safety guidelines for younger children
- Knowing applicable laws relating to children below teen years
- Potential problems with sharing from older
- Alateens being inappropriate for the younger ones
- Alateens age 18 and older are legally adults
- All Alateens, even those who are legal adults, must comply with the Area Alateen Requirements when participating as an Alateen.

Alateen Group Sponsors

- Are certified as Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service
 - (Note that AMIAS must be certified first in the Area in which they live; if serving Alateen in a neighboring Area, they must also be certified in that Area)
- Support the Alateens in taking responsibility for their own meeting
- Share recovery
- Listen, listen, listen
- Attend Al-Anon meetings regularly

Starting an Alateen Group

- Follow the Area process for certification of Alateen Group Sponsors and meeting registration.
- Contact your District Representative and connect with the Area Alateen Coordinator and the AAPP.
- Set meeting place/time
- Discuss age range
- Obtain support from one or more Al-Anon groups if possible.
- Alateen meetings are closed, attended by Alateens and the Area-certified Alateen Group Sponsors/AMIAS only.

The Alateen Group Meeting

- All Alateen meetings are “closed” meetings, regularly attended only by the Alateens and the affiliated Alateen Group Sponsors and certified backups.
- Alateen groups may hold a periodic “open” meeting to celebrate the group’s anniversary or for outreach purposes.
- The District Representative (or other Area-designated trusted servants) may occasionally attend Alateen groups as a part of their service responsibilities.

* Any potential Group Sponsors need to be certified before attending an Alateen meeting.

The New Alateen Meeting

- The first meeting will be exciting for all concerned.
- Ask the group to set its own behavioral guidelines. Remind them they are responsible for their group.
- Remember it's the Alateens' meeting!

Al-Anon Support

- The support of one or more established Al-Anon meetings can help to ensure success.
- The Al-Anon group members can:
 - Encourage Al-Anon members to become certified to provide a pool of backup Alateen Group Sponsors.
 - Bring their own children/grandchildren to the Alateen meeting.
 - Mention the Alateen meeting in their group announcements.
 - Help the Alateen group get started financially; it is important that they become self-supporting as soon as possible.
 - Welcome Alateens, particularly those transitioning, to the Al-Anon meeting.

Starting an Alateen Group

Finding a location

- It is recommended to seek a meeting room at the same time and place as an established Al-Anon group.
- A teen clubhouse, mall community room, or juvenile facility may provide a familiar and comfortable place for an Alateen meeting.
- Sometimes a professional will offer meeting space; if they are in a position to refer teens to the meeting, this can be a win-win location.
- Consider transportation and safety issues.

NYN Area Process for Alateen Group Registration

- WSO will only register groups through the Area process
- The Alateen Group Sponsors, CMA, and group contacts must be Area-certified AMIAS
- Obtain and complete the required Alateen Group Registration Form. (NYN Alateen Guidelines-attachments F and G)

- All medications will be held by the Parent/AMIAS listed on the permission/medical form.
- The original notarized Parental Permission/Medical Care Form should remain with the AMIAS transporting and responsible for the teen.
- A copy of the notarized form is submitted with the registration to the event.
- In the case of NYNAC, the copy is sent to the NYNAC Coordinator.
- If an Alateen needed medical care, the original, with a notary seal, would be required.
- Once AMIAS and Teen arrives at NYNAC the original form must be given to the nurse on duty.

The background features a light green balloon in the top left, a light blue balloon in the middle left, and a light purple balloon in the bottom left. Yellow streamers and triangular flags are scattered around the balloons.

A.A. Conventions with Al-Anon/Alateen Participation

- A.A. may invite Al-Anon and Alateen to participate in its conventions or other events.
- Alateen participation must adhere to the Area Alateen Safety and Behavioral Requirements. There can be no Alateen participation if Al-Anon is not invited to participate.
- The A.A. planning committee must agree to adhere to the Al-Anon Area's Requirements for Alateen participation.

Alateen Conferences

- Opportunity for Alateens and Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS) to enhance their recovery through sharing of ideas, fun, and fellowship
- Increased sharing experience with wider Alateen membership

Alateen Conferences

- Must be connected to the Area in which they are held ("host Area").
- Conference requirements must meet or exceed the host Area requirements, and must be approved by the host Area.
- All Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS) are required to have their Area's approval prior to taking Alateens to Conferences or other events.

Al-Anon guidelines The Shared Experience of Al-Anon and Alateen Members.

Alateen Conferences

An Alateen conference is an opportunity for Alateen members and Alateen Group Sponsors* to increase their understanding of the Steps and Twelve Traditions through the sharing of ideas, fun, and fellowship. Alateen conferences give attendees the increased opportunity of a wider Alateen membership. Alateen conferences are sometimes called Alateen round-ups, Alateen conventions, "Alateen Group Sponsor" and "Al-Anon Member Involved in Alateen Service" (or "AMIAS") are used to include all AMIAS who are serving at the conference in any capacity.

G-16

Alateen Conferences

- Most are closed, for Alateens and certified Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS) only.
- An Alateen Conference with an open meeting(s) needs to have:
 - a process to identify the Area-certified Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service.
 - a safety plan to insure that Alateens are always in the care of the Area-certified AMIAS present.

Alateen Safety Guidelines

G-34

Alateens are members of the Al-Anon Family Groups who have suffered because of the alcoholism of a loved one. They have come to Alateen seeking recovery. Before recovery can take place, an environment of trust and safety must exist. It is the responsibility of Al-Anon and Alateen as a whole to work together to maintain a healthy, loving, and supportive environment.

NYNAC/ NYN Assemblies/Conventions

- NYNAC is a conference for Alateens attending Alateen or Al-Anon Meetings in NYN Area 39.
- The NYNAC Coordinator works closely with the NYN Alateen Coordinator in planning the event.
- NYNAC is a closed event attended only by Alateens and Certified AMIAS within NYN.
- The NYNAC Coordinator sends each Alateen Group a registration/medical consent form, along with the NYNAC Guidelines.

NYNAC / NYN Assemblies/Conventions

- It is the responsibility of the group sponsors to review the Conference Guidelines with their teens prior to attending.
- All Alateens and AMIAS must submit a copy of the completed notarized Registration/Medical Consent form and payment to the NYNAC Coordinator prior to attending.
- No walk-ins will be permitted to attend.
- The NYNAC Conference Guidelines will be reviewed with all attendees at the opening of the conference.
- Copies of the NYNAC Guidelines can be found on the NYN Website. www.nynafig.com

Safety/Legal Issues

- Matters of physical safety are not negotiable, and not up to the group.
- Alateen Group Sponsors have the responsibility to insure that the meeting is a safe place. "Engaging in roughhousing, fighting, overt and covert sexual behavior or any other inappropriate activities before, during, and after an Alateen meeting or event can put you or your group in a dangerous position..." (from Alateen Safety Guidelines, G-34)
- Be familiar with your Area Alateen Requirements, Area Alateen Process, and local laws.
- Research local resources and hotline phone numbers that could help a child with a dangerous or abusive situation.
- What are examples of physical safety challenges?

Safety/Legal Issues

Mandatory Reporting

- “Child abuse laws relating to mandatory disclosure usually refer to individuals performing in a professional capacity, and not as volunteers. It is advisable that the laws in each state/province/ country be investigated because they do vary from place to place. Where reporting is required, there is no choice but to comply with the law.” (Alateen Safety Guidelines, G-34)
- If reporting is mandatory, how do we prepare the Alateens?

If a mandated reporter is present, the Alateens must be made aware of this at every meeting, before sharing begins, so that they have a choice in the subjects they share. If it becomes necessary to report something, do it as an interested and concerned adult, not as a representative of Al-Anon or Alateen.

Safety/Legal Issues

When Thinking of Reporting*

Whether reporting is mandatory or not:

- Start by discussing the matter with the Area Alateen Coordinator, DR, or other trusted servants according to the Area Process.
- Before reporting, discuss your intentions with the Alateen member.
- Follow advice of legal counsel regarding keeping identities anonymous.
- Any reporting is done as an individual, not as an Alateen Group Sponsor or AMIAS.

(Taken from the Alateen Safety Guidelines, G-34)*

Safety/Legal Issues

Mandatory Reporting

- Al-Anon and Alateen are not above the law.
- If an AMIAS feels a moral responsibility to report a case of suspected child abuse to the authorities, refer to the World Service Guideline G-34 Page 4, "Alateen Safety Guidelines."
- As volunteers, AMIAS are NOT Mandated Reporters in New York State. It is recommended that all AMIAS become familiar with the reporting guidelines for New York State.

When Am I Mandated to Report?
Mandated reporters are required to report suspected child abuse or maltreatment.

NEW YORK STATE
Office of Children and Family Services

Summary Guide for Mandated Reporters in New York State

What Is Abuse and Maltreatment?

Abuse encompasses the most serious injuries and/or risk of serious injuries to children by their caregivers. An abused child is one whose parent or other person legally responsible for his or her care inflicts serious physical injury upon the child, creates a substantial risk of serious physical injury, or commits a sex offense against the child. Abuse also includes situations where a parent or other person legally responsible knowingly allows someone else to inflict such harm on a child.

Maltreatment (Includes Neglect)

Maltreatment means that a child's physical, mental or emotional condition has been impaired, or placed in imminent danger of impairment, by the failure of the child's parent or other person legally responsible to exercise a minimum degree of care by:

- * failing to provide sufficient food, clothing, shelter, education;
- or
- * failing to provide proper supervision, guardianship, or medical care (refers to all medical issues, including dental, optometric, or surgical care); or
- inflicting excessive corporal punishment, abandoning - flirting excessive alcohol or other drugs to the extent at danger.

How Do I Recognize Child Abuse and Maltreatment?

The list that follows contains some common indicators of abuse or maltreatment. This list is not all-inclusive, and some abused or maltreated children may not show any of these symptoms.

Indicators of Physical Abuse Can Include:

- * Injuries to the eyes or both sides of the head or body (accidental injuries typically only affect one side of the body);
- * Frequent injuries of any kind (bruises, cuts, and/or burns), especially if the child is unable to provide an adequate explanation of the cause. These may appear in distinctive patterns such as grab marks, human bite marks, cigarette burns, or impressions of other instruments;
- * Destructive, aggressive, or disruptive behavior;
- * Passive, withdrawn, or emotionless behavior;
- * Fear of going home or fear of parent(s).

Indicators of Sexual Abuse Can Include:

- * Symptoms of sexually transmitted diseases;
- * Injury to genital area;
- * Difficulty and/or pain when sitting or walking;
- * Sexually suggestive, inappropriate, or promiscuous behavior or verbalization;
- * Expressing age-inappropriate knowledge of sexual relations;
- * Sexualization of other children.

Safety/Legal Issues

Finding the Balance among Concept Three and Traditions Two and Four

Concept Three: The right of decision makes effective leadership possible.

This tells us the right of decision makes effective Alateen Group Sponsorship possible: within the framework of their job description, it should be traditional for Alateen Group Sponsors to decide which matters they can handle on their own, and which they will report, consult others, or ask specific direction.

Safety/Legal Issues

Finding the Balance among Concept Three and Traditions Two and Four

Tradition Two: For our group purpose there is but one authority—a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants—they do not govern.

- The Al-Anon solution to group problems is found in Tradition Two, which refers to “trusted servants.” Alateen Group Sponsors are trusted servants to the Alateen group and to the Al-Anon fellowship. There is accountability.
- Alateen Group Sponsors do not govern or own their Alateen groups.

Safety/Legal Issues

Finding the Balance among Concept Three and Traditions Two and Four

Tradition Four: Each group should be autonomous, except in matters affecting other Alateen and Al-Anon Family Groups or A.A. as a whole.

Know what the Tradition means.

- What types of matters fall under group autonomy?
- What matters might affect other Alateen groups as a whole?
- Al-Anon Groups as a whole?
- A.A. as a whole?
- How can we determine the difference?

Safety/Legal Issues

Keep the Focus on Safety

What are some common sense ways to keep the focus on safety?

- Transport Alateens in a group and with another adult
- Do not transport Alateens without parental permission
- Obtain permission/medical care forms when required
- Be gender & number conscious

Behavior Problems

Setting Boundaries with Alateen Members

- Treat Alateens with respect.
- Demonstrate Al-Anon principles with what you say and do.
- Do not accept unacceptable behavior.

How can we accomplish this?

- Use “I” messages, sharing our own feelings about the situation.
- Don’t be afraid to ask a disruptive Alateen to leave the meeting.
- Ask for help from other AMIAS.

Behavior Problems

Identify Physical Safety Issues vs. Group Behavior Problems

The group can set the rules before there is a problem!

Group problems might be:

- Dominating the discussion in meetings
- Rudeness
- Getting off topic
- Lack of self-discipline
- Age differences

Behavior Problems

Siblings

Are asked to:

- be peers in the meetings
- keep family rivalry or problems out of the group
- keep each other's confidences

Behavior Problems

Addressing a Problem in the Alateen Group

- When there is disruptive behavior in the group, both group members and Sponsors can ask members to stop.
- If attempts to resolve a behavior issue directly with the individuals have not worked, the behavior may need to be discussed by the group.
- For example, the group might discuss, “how will we handle use of cell phones and texting during our meetings?”

Behavior Problems

Addressing a Problem in the Alateen Group

- In the group, say the Serenity Prayer. Then either the Alateen Group Sponsor or an Alateen member may share the problem in a general way with the group, inviting discussion.
- Encourage the Alateens and Alateen Group Sponsors to apply the Traditions to the situation and to stick to Al-Anon/Alateen principles.
- The group may decide to update their behavior guidelines, including actions to take with violators.
- The group may decide a group inventory would be helpful.

Behavior Problems

Behavior Problems

A Group Inventory May Help

- Taking group inventory can help to prevent problems, as well as to identify them and find solutions.
- Giving the Alateens responsibility for their meeting or event can deepen their commitment to upholding behavior requirements.
- Resource: Taking a Group Inventory guideline (G-8a/b)

"Participation is the key to harmony."
(Concept Four)

Behavior Problems

Group Conscience Vote

- The next step is to discuss “taking an informed group conscience” with the group.
- After the matter is discussed and voted on, the group honors the opinion of the majority.
- When the Alateen group determines its own behavioral guidelines and the process for dealing with violations, the group members will monitor their own behavior.

- Interactions with parents
- Public Outreach—building attendance

Part C:

- Understanding the Area Alateen Requirements and Process
- Minimizing challenges

Dealing with Conflict

- Conflict can occur in any group, and dealing with it can make the group and the individuals involved stronger.
- There may be conflict between the Alateen members and an Alateen Group Sponsor, or between two Group Sponsors or two Alateens.
- Describe conflicts you may have experienced.

Conflict between Alateens and an Alateen Group Sponsor

- An open discussion in the group may be helpful. All parties practice the Twelfth Tradition by placing principles above personalities.
- The Sponsor the Alateens are having difficulty with may be asked to leave the room as long as there is another AMIAS present.
- The group might ask the District Representative (DR), Alateen Coordinator, or another trusted servant to participate in the discussion. An impartial party may provide a new perspective.
- The DR or Alateen Coordinator may also help the group take a group inventory.
- In order to resolve the conflict, the Sponsor may step down for a time.* Remember, the meeting is for the Alateens!

Conflict Between Alateen Group Sponsors

Some conflicts are personal in nature:

- Personality conflicts
- Differences in style of Sponsoring
- Dominating the group and other Alateen Group Sponsors

Use your resources:

- Talk to your DR, Alateen Coordinator, other trusted servants

Some conflicts are with the Area Alateen Process:

- Use of the Alateen name requires compliance with the Area Alateen Safety and Behavioral Requirements.

This is not optional.

- The Area has the right of decision on who can serve as an Alateen Group Sponsor.
- The Area Alateen Coordinator, Alateen Process Person, and Delegate are the contacts for Area Process questions.

Alateens and Difficult Situations

Topics teens bring up could be:

- Living with physical violence
- Running away
- Peer pressure
- Abuse
- Sex & sexuality
- Suicide

You might notice these behaviors:

- Fidgeting or moving around
- Crying
- Seeming angry or confused
- Doodling

A decorative background on the left side of the slide featuring a stylized sun with yellow rays and three balloons in green, blue, and purple.

Difficult Situations

When You Encounter Tough Stuff

What can Alateen Group Sponsors do?

- Let the child talk about it. Encourage members to find their own solutions.
- Suggest a meeting topic to engage the group in general discussion on living with violence or anger.
- Know your local laws, especially regarding mandatory reporting. Keep a list of community resources to provide to Alateens if needed.
- Talk to other AMIAS, Alateen Coordinator, AAPP and your Service Sponsor. Share your concerns without violating the Alateen's anonymity.

Difficult Situations

Detaching from Things you Hear in Alateen

- Alateens may share family matters that are disturbing. Remember they are only sharing one side of the story. It is important that the Sponsor not place themselves between the child and the parent.
- The Alateen Group Sponsor's or AMIAS' role is not to "fix" each Alateen's problems.
- Alateen group meetings and events are a safe haven for the Alateens.
- Alateen Group Sponsors and AMIAS need to keep their focus on their own recovery, and not let others' problems become overwhelming.

Difficult Situations

Avoiding Sponsor Burnout

Alateen Group Sponsors need to take steps to avoid burnout, as Alateen sponsorship can be stressful and emotionally draining.

- Attend additional Al-Anon meetings.
- Attend or chair a meeting on “laughter”!
- Attend Alateen Sponsor meetings/weekends in your district/Area.
- Use your personal and service Sponsors.
- Put your emotional and spiritual needs first.
- Take a break from sponsoring.

Interacting with Parents

When Parents Ask Questions

- Alateen recovery is about learning to keep the focus on oneself, just as Al-Anon members do.
- The Alateen Group Sponsor and the other Alateens are bound by our Tradition of anonymity. In the same way, we respect parents' confidentiality and do not share what they say with the Alateen member.
- Never come between a child and their parent, or undermine the parent's authority. The Alateen Group Sponsor only has responsibility for the child while the child is in the Alateen meeting or event. The parent's decisions must be adhered to—whether you agree with them or not.

Anonymity

- It is important to discuss the meaning of anonymity and confidentiality with the Alateen group (Traditions Eleven and Twelve).
- Alateens and Alateen Group Sponsors need to understand the importance of "Who you see here, what you hear here, when you leave here, let it stay here."
- Sponsors protect Alateen confidences when talking with other Sponsors.
- Review section of this presentation on "Safety/Legal Issues" on reporting.*

Anonymity Challenges of Technology

Anonymity Online

"Tradition Eleven gives a specific guideline: 'we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, films, and TV.' It is Al-Anon/Alateen policy to interpret Tradition Eleven to include the Internet as well as all forms of evolving public media. Personal anonymity in the media guards the fellowship from the Al-Anon/Alateen member who may be tempted to seek public recognition."

2022-2025 Al-Anon/Alateen Service Manual (P-24/27), page 98

Anonymity Challenges of Technology

- “On any Web site accessible to the public, whether an Al-Anon site or not, full names, phone numbers, or other identifying information are not posted, if they are identified as belonging to an Al-Anon/Alateen member.”

2022-2025 Al-Anon/Alateen Service Manual (P-24/27, page 99)

- Alateen identifying information is never posted on the Internet.
 - Any contacts for an Alateen event posted online should be Area-certified AMIAS.
 - See Guideline for Al-Anon Web Sites (G-40)

Anonymity Challenges of Technology

- “Web-based communication, such as on-line audio/visual materials (e.g. Web casts or podcasts), social networking sites, and blogs, provides members with easy access to distribute information about Al-Anon/Alateen recovery to a large audience. In keeping with Tradition Eleven...members who use this type of communication outlet must maintain their personal anonymity and that of any Al-Anon/Alateen or A.A. member, as the Internet is a form of media.”

2022-2025 Al-Anon/Alateen Service Manual (P-24/27, page 99)

Financial Challenges

Group Finances

- It is the goal of every Al-Anon/Alateen group to be “fully self-supporting” (Tradition Seven).
- Within Al-Anon/Alateen, members and groups help each other to attain the goal of self support.
- Discussion of Tradition Seven in the Alateen group is helpful.

Financial Challenges

Alateen Conference Expenses

- Attending Alateen conferences is an individual expense.
- "Alateens, like Al-Anon members, participate in paying for their attendance at conferences whenever possible." (Alateen Conferences, G-16)
- Alateens should be encouraged to plan their own fundraising activities, and to ask the Al-Anon district/Area for help.
- The Alateen Conferences Guideline (G-16) provides shared experience on local/Area Alateen event fundraising.
- How can Al-Anons help Alateens to be fully self-supporting?

Applying the Traditions in Alateen Meetings/Events and in Alateen Service

Study of the Traditions can:

- Help solve problems
- Help the Alateens to understand the principles of anonymity and self-support

Public Outreach

The Challenge of Attracting Teens to the Group

- Getting the word out about Alateen is an ongoing challenge.
- Work with Area Alateen Coordinator, District/AIS Alateen and Public Outreach contact/committee
- Plan Public Outreach to:
 - Al-Anon groups
 - A.A. groups
 - Schools
 - Community
 - Local events (health fairs, etc.)

Public Outreach

The Challenge of Attracting Teens to the Group

- Participate in local/Area service meetings. Demonstrate that Alateen is part of Al-Anon.
- Encourage Alateens to attend local fellowship events, in compliance with Area Alateen Safety and Behavioral Requirements.
- Work with your local district/AIS public outreach committee to help get the word out to schools, professionals, and the community.

- Minimizing challenges

Challenges with the Area Alateen Requirements and Process

- In order to use the Alateen name, all Areas established Area Alateen Safety and Behavioral Requirements.
- All use of the Alateen name in the Area must be in compliance with the Area Requirements.
- When Al-Anon members are not in compliance with the Area Alateen Safety and Behavioral Requirements, it creates a challenge for the Area.

Area Alateen Process

Area Requirements

"...if an Area within the World Service Conference Structure uses the Al-Anon or Alateen name in conjunction with any meeting(s), group(s), convention(s), or any other gathering(s) in the Area where Alateen participation is offered, the Area must have safety and behavioral requirements for all Alateen members and Al-Anon members involved in Alateen service. These safety and behavioral requirements must meet the minimum requirements of Al-Anon Family Group Headquarters, Inc."

(2003 Alateen Motion)

Area Alateen Process

Area Requirements and Area Processes

- In order to use the Alateen name, Alateen groups must be currently registered with WSO* and in compliance with the Area Alateen Safety and Behavioral Requirements.
- The procedures for applying the Area Requirements are outlined in the Area Alateen Process.
- Contact the Area Alateen Coordinator or the Area Process Person (AAPP) for a current copy of the NYN Area 39 Safety & Behavioral Requirements for AMIAS & Behavioral Requirement for Alateens.

Area Alateen Process

Minimum Requirements

In addition to minimum requirements for Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS), the 2003 Alateen Motion set the following minimums:

- There must be at least one Alateen Group Sponsor at every Alateen meeting.
- The Area Requirements must prohibit overt or covert sexual interaction between any adult and Alateen member.*
- The Area requirements must prohibit conduct contrary to applicable laws.
- The Area requirements must contain procedures for parental permission and medical care when applicable.
- The Area requirements must be reviewed by local counsel.

Area Alateen Process

Alateen Groups

- Alateen groups must have one certified AMIAS serving as Alateen Group Sponsors at each meeting.
- Alateens are members of Al-Anon Family Groups, and are always welcome at Al-Anon meetings. When no Alateen Group Sponsor is available, Alateens can attend an Al-Anon meeting that meets at the same time and place.
- Alateen groups promptly update their group information whenever a change is made. Note that a change in Sponsor or CMA must be updated immediately, as groups do not qualify for registration without active AMIAS in these service roles.

Area Alateen Process

Annual Recertification

- The 2003 Alateen Motion states, "...each Area must have a process to certify, and must so certify to the WSO annually, that each Al-Anon member involved with Alateen service has met the Area's Safety and Behavioral Requirements and has agreed to abide by them."

Al-Anon Members Involved in Alateen Service NYN Area Yearly Process Recertification

- Each year the World Service Office will provide the APP with a list of all active AMIAS within their Area.
- The AAPP will send each AMIAS the Yearly AMIAS Recertification Form (Attachment E) along with a cover letter of instructions.
- All AMIAS must complete and sign the form indicating if they wish to continue serving as an AMIAS.
- Upon receiving the form the AAPP updates any changes in AMIAS demographic information and then recertifies using the WSO Online Group Records Program.
- When an AMIAS declines to continue service or no longer qualifies for active status, the AAPP will inactivate the AMIAS using the WSO Al-Anon Online Group Records program.
- Any AMIAS failing to recertify will be inactivated.
- Each DR has the ability to access all AMIAS eligible to serve in his/her District.
